DiscussIT Topic 6: Where is our country headed?

Discuss IT Topic: Over the last week, our country has had growing concerns on immigration bans, border safety, and executive orders that remind us of issues that have been plaguing our country for years. Now that Trump has been elected President, there has been people threatening to blow up the White House, human right protests, and a plethora of other sensitive subject matters that are very compelling to individual groups of people. Why have these issues come up now as we head into a time in which it seems no one is going to be happy with the outcomes? Will this create a split in this country and place citizens against one another when it comes to their views? In your opinion, what other topics are at the forefront of concern? Explain...

Response: Please make sure all grammar, spelling, indentation, and punctuation is correct.

Yes I think that with the concerns that our country has there is going to be many people separating from each other and citizens will go against each other as if there is a side to chose. With the new president Donald Trump and all of the threats around the country many people are worried while some people want Donald Trump to die or not be president so yes I do think that citizens are going to separate. Some things the people threatening might do is try to kill Donald Trump , set fires and hurt many people and lastly they might , hurt police officers.
